SPIRIT-FLOWERS.

BY C. D. STUART.

A young child stood by its mother's side,
Watching the shining mould
Of a grave, fresh scooped from old grave
dust,
By a sexton gray and old;
And "why do they bury us, mother dear,
Down in the earth so cold?"
She asked, as she gazed at the grave fresh scooped,
By the sexton gray and old.

"The earth is not cold, my darling child,"
Softly the mother said;
"Its bosom is warm, and to sleep and rest,
Gently we bury the dead;
Its bosom is warm, my darling child,
And under the sun and shower,
The soul will rise from its quiet sleep,
A beautiful bud or flower.

And angels will bear it up, my child,
Into the heaven above,
Never again to droop or die,
But bloom in the light of love;
The sun's warm rays and the shining dew,
Are shapes of an angel band
Who, sent to gather the spirit-flowers,
Over the grave-turf stand."

And silent, the young child answered not,
But knew from that blessed hour,
Why she had gazed, and wondered so much
At every beautiful flower,
And even in after years, the breath
Of the flowers were sweeter far;
They led her up to the Spirit-land,
Over the shining star!

BRANDRETH PILLS.

ON the eighteenth of May, 1835, these now truly celebrated Pills were first made known in the UNITED STATES, although in Europe they had been previously before the public nearly a century. The American public naturally viewed them with suspicion but as on trial they were found what they professed, it was soon displaced by the greatest confidence. They have secured this character, too, under very adverse circumstances, having to contend with the base slanders promulgated by those interested in keeping mankind in a state of error as regards the functions of their bodies. Time or climate affects them not, provided they are kept dry. For sale by GEO. HOWARD.
